Pellechet, No. 2918 (first two parts only). ONLY ONE OTHER COPY RECORDED, THAT BEING IN THE BIBLIOTHEQUE NATIONALE, PARIS. BEAUTIFUL COPY, IN WONDERFULLY FINE CONDITION, WITH AN ORIGINAL BLANK LEAF AT BEGINNING AND LEAF OF REGISTER, WHICH ARE LACKING IN THE BIBLIOTHEQUE NATIONALE COPY. The first blank leaf has some writing and stains, but otherwise the volume is almost as clean and fresh as new. WIDE MARGINS, leaves measuring $5 \frac{5}{16} \times 3 \frac{1}{2}$ inches. There are four leaves in manuscript in signature L, which appear to be part of the original volume, having the same manuscript foliation continuous with that on the printed leaves. The printed leaves for this section may have been lost in assembling or accidentally left blank.

This copy agrees with Pellechet's collation of the first two parts (which are complete in themselves without the third and fourth parts), with the following variations,—First signature (unmarked) has eight leaves instead of six, first blank and present, Calendar on second to seventh, Register on eighth, followed by the Psalter, then the Breviary, thus making the collation,—Signatures [*] in eight, AA to EE in twelves, FF in eight, A to O in twelves, P in eight, total 252 leaves instead of 250 for this section, as given by Pellechet. There are also some slight variations in the abbreviations used in the text, but the lining-off is the same. There is no printer's colophon at the end of any of the various sections of text, the complete volume ending on leaf 418, according to Pellechet, actually leaf 420, with the words,—“Per Christum dominum nostrum, R | Amen.”

The binder has lettered the back,—“Compendium Breviarii | 1461 [!] Imp. in Membranis [!] |”. Pellechet's placing it as printed in Venice about 1480 is probably correct, and it is a BEAUTIFUL SPECIMEN OF EARLY VENETIAN PRINTING, AND ONE OF THE EARLIEST BOOKS PRINTED IN OCTAVO (IN SMALL TYPE. With the Lord Leigh bookplate.

43A BRITTON (JOHN DE). [De Legibus Angliae]. Black Letter. Small 8vo, old calf (hinges weak; some margins at end damaged, but no text affected).

[Venice: B. Tortis, 1482]

Hain, No. 5271 (last part); Pellechet, No. 3749. PERFECT COPY OF TEXT, the first and last blank leaves (ai and t6) are lacking, and there are a few very light stains on some leaves. With unusually wide margins, measuring 11½ x 8 inches.

ONLY ONE COPY OF THIS WORK IS RECORDED IN AMERICA, that being in the Harvard University Library, and ONLY ONE COPY HAS BEEN OFFERED AT AUCTION IN ENGLAND IN THE LAST TWENTY YEARS.

De Tortis printed two editions of Cicero's Officiorum in Venice, in 1481 and 1482, the original work including other books by Cicero, with the Colophon at the end of the entire volume. The Officiorum is complete in itself but has no separate Colophon. Hain did not know a perfect copy of this 1482 edition and gives the collation of the Officiorum of that date as a last part of the 1481 edition.

Finis. Fol. 68 blank.* Small folio, contemporary German binding in oak boards covered with stamped pigskin. Numerous marginal and interlinear interesting notes by a contemporary German scholarly hand.

[Leipzig: Martin Landsberg, c. 1495-96.]

This edition is apparently unknown, as it does not appear to be described by any bibliographer: it seems to be a reprint of Hain 5234 (Cat. of Inc. in the Brit. Mus., III, p. 639) issued from the same press about 1493 or 1494. Landberg device is here in state (b), which superseded state (a) in 1495-96. Bound at the beginning of the volume are the following interesting pieces, also with numerous interesting annotations, evidently written by the same hand which engrossed the "Officia": Epistola amatoria quam Sapho puella ad absentem mittit Phaonem (6 leaves); Hanc epistolam scribit Hermione Horesti (3 leaves and 2 blanks); vita diui anthonii ad sanctissimum dominum Eugenium papam quartum per Mapheum Vegium Laudensem (14 leaves; at the end the following note: Telos in carnis priuio anno domini 1499); Marci Tulij Ciceronis Paradoxa (13 leaves); M. T. C. pro Marco Marcello ad patres conscriptos et Caium Caesarem Oratio (9 leaves; at the end the following note: Collecta 8 ydus mensis Septembris. 1498. anno (and added by a later hand) Nunburgi a Domino Saganensi. Prelecta rursus Nunburgi anno. 1542, etc.); Ouidij Nasonis de remedio Amoris liber primus [et secundus] (21 leaves); Aristotilis Libellus de regimine principum (deals with medicine, 7 leaves). After the Cicero are bound the two following works: Laurentii Vallensis Elegantiae de lingua latina, Venice, J. B. Sessa, 8 Febr. 1499 (Hain 15822), and Joannis Tortellii Orthographia, Venetiis, Johannes de tridino, 19 Dec. 1495 (Hain 15574).

An exceptionally long run of this important historical publication, being one of the rarest as well as one of the most important of French publications of the period and as a source of original and contemporary historical data, it is perhaps, not to be equalled. An official journal, published every day in the week, including Sunday; and during a period in which more tragic and stirring events were crowded into the same space of time than possibly any other of the world's history.

Included in this set, are the numbers from years VII and VIII of the French Republic (1798-1800) which owing to the unsettled condition of affairs at the time, were published in few numbers and are now very scarce. Accompanying the above is an A. L. s. to a Mr. Ward from Adolph Maillard (Secretary to Prince Napoleon) in which he says: "Dear Charlie, This copy of the Moniteur Universel formerly belonged to Joseph Bonaparte, King of Naples and afterwards of Spain, etc. A Maillard, New York, Jan'y 8, 1868."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

"It would be nice to be able to say something lasting and impressive about the Quinn Catalogues, but nothing that might be said—this side of hyperbole—will be as impressive as these catalogues themselves. They are unique and challenging, and they have set a new standard of excellence."

The New York Herald

"Whoever catalogued the Quinn Library certainly surpassed himself: we have never seen so fine a job of bibliographic annotation."

Christopher Morley in The New York Evening Post

"Whoever wrote the introductions, made a catalogue that will be something to be treasured in the library of a book-lover. The faultless printing and format would attract, apart from the interest of the items offered. . . . The catalogue was the finest ever issued by an auction house."

Boston Evening Transcript

"No more remarkable library of first editions of modern authors has ever been formed than that of Mr. John Quinn. The catalogue, when completed, will form a very valuable and permanent book of reference. The brief biographical details are unconventional and always interesting, often furnishing details and points of view to be found nowhere else. . . . One might go on quoting columns from these terse and often epigrammatic biographies."

The London Times (Literary Supplement)
